BRIGANCE TESTING

We are doing Brigance Testing again starting February 16th, 2021. We will have a schedule on the 16th and we will start with the oldest children first. Ms. Mack, who came and helped last year, will return this year and help again. I have her Bio online if you did not get a chance to meet her. She will be coming Tuesdays and Thursdays until our evals are done. The children have come along way and we are excited to compare to last testing that we had in the fall!
